

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 25.

For this section fair, cooler weather, northeast-ly winds.

LOCAL POLITICAL NOTES OF INTEREST.—A letter from King George to the Richmond Times says: "The citizens of this county have been formally apprized of Mr. Frank Hume's independent candidacy for Congress, and Mr. Hume's conduct in support of a party that stands even a ghost of a chance in this democratic district is simply appalling. No doubt Mr. Hume has been deceived by some of his over-enthusiastic friends as to his strength. While it is true that some democrats in this county will not support General Lee, the regular nominee, yet it is not true that the democratic vote will be anything like equal divided between Lee and Hume. The truth is Frank Hume is the weakest man whose name has been discussed in connection with congressional honors in the eighth district."

The Richmond Dispatch says: "Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of the state democratic committee, returned to the city Tuesday night from Alexandria, where he held a conference on that day with the county chairmen and the members of the committee in the district. The chairman of every county was present, and General Lee, the democratic nominee for Congress, was also in attendance. The condition of affairs reported very satisfactory and Mr. Ellyson said last night, when seen by a Dispatch reporter that he thought there was no doubt that General Lee will be elected by a handsome majority."

A letter from Prince William to the Fredericksburg Star says: "Old Prince William, though feeling that her claim to representation in the next Congress did not meet with recognition, will be found as true in November as of old, and will roll up a handsome majority for 'Old Mrs. Bob's' son."

The Warrenton Virginian says: "We do not know how it is elsewhere, but we do know that in Fauquier we have not been able to find a single democrat who will vote for Hume, and do not believe there is one in the county. On the other hand we know of many republicans who are going to vote for Lee. We believe the majority for him in this county will not be one less than 1200."

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.—Judge James Keith presiding.—Frances M. Humphries vs. Wm. Humphries; decree for absolute divorce.

W. Fletcher vs. W. H. Breen; cause referred to Commissioner Kemper.

Jas. W. Roberts vs. Aged Men and Women's Home Society; decree for sale.

Fletcher vs. Shipman; motion to dissolve injunction; hearing denied at this term and case continued.

Chas. Bandhelm vs. A. & F. R. R.; suit for damages for being put off a train; jury and verdict for plaintiff for $10 and costs; motion by defendant company for new trial; motion overruled.

Mary R. Hayes et al. vs. Amelia H. Reed et al.; decree confirming sale of the mill property of the late W. N. Reed, in Fairfax county, and appointing A. G. Hayes and J. E. Clement special commissioners to convey property to C. W. Baldwin, the purchaser.

Court adjourned till court in course.

PERSONAL.—Misses Susie and Jessie Baker, who have been visiting Mrs. Thomas Perry, left this morning for their home in King George county. They were accompanied on their return home by Miss Lola Sealeman, of this city.

Misses Emma Wilson and Nellie Trail, of St. Louis, who have been visiting here, leave this afternoon accompanied by their uncle, Mr. Charles J. Wise, who will be absent from the city for some months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kidwell and their little son Edward have gone to Asheville, N. C., where they will spend some time. On their return they will visit Richmond and Baltimore.

Col. B. H. Hardin, formerly one of the professors of the V. M. I. at Lexington, was in the city to-day.

TEN DOLLAR DAMAGES.—The suit of Mr. Charles Bandhelm vs. the A. & F. R. Co. was tried in the Circuit Court to-day. Mr. Bandhelm, as stated in the GAZETTE at the time, arrived at the depot on the 23d day of November, 1888, but being unable to buy a ticket in time to take the train for Washington (tendered the amount of the fare to the conductor on the train. The latter refused to accept the amount offered, 15 cents, but demanded the amount he was authorized to collect, 20 cents. This Mr. B. refused to pay and was put off the train. He subsequently brought suit for $20.00 damages. The jury to-day rendered a verdict for the plaintiff for $10 and costs. The defendant company moved to set aside the verdict and for a new trial, but the motion was overruled.

THE WRONG MAIL ROUTE.—Our esteemed contemporary—and, by-the-way, newest exchange received at this office—the Alexandria GAZETTE, is forwarded to this place over the wrong route, as it frequently fails to reach us until the day after it leaves the home office, and then arrives by the roundabout way of Winchester, our Postmaster informs us. If sent over the W. O. & W. R. R. it would reach here at 4 p. m. But until recently it has been in the habit of getting here at 9 a. m., with the Baltimore and Washington mail.—Clarke Courier

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with one prisoner and two lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Geo. Lucas, a member of the chain gang, charged with being drunk and with an assault on the captain of the gang, was released on the promise that he would leave the city.

Benj. Waters, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed for want of evidence.

KILLED WITH A PITCHFORK.—A telegram received here to-day states that during a difficulty near Front Royal this morning, a white man named Jenkins killed a colored man by piercing him with a pitchfork. The men were working together at a threshing machine, when the colored man persisted in throwing straw on Jenkins. The latter warned the man to desist, but on his refusal, Jenkins thrust the fork into his body, killing him almost instantly.

WEDDING AT THE CIRCUS.—A present of $100 in gold or set of magnificent furniture is offered by the management of T. K. Burk's New Trans-Atlantic Railroad Show to the couple who will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the afternoon performance of the above show, on the day of the circus, Saturday, 27th inst. The proprietor asserts that this is a bona fide offer, made in good faith.

ACCIDENTS.—A horse son of Mr. Geo. G. Bauer, who lives on north St. Asaph street, was run over yesterday evening by a wagon, but was not seriously injured.

Yesterday evening Mr. J. H. McIntosh, a brakeman on the Midland road, was struck in the breast by a flying coupling pin in the railroad yard and quite badly hurt. Both of these cases were attended by Dr. O'Brien.

INVITATION ACCEPTED.—The Camp of the Sons of Confederate Veterans held a meeting last night and accepted the invitation to attend the ceremonies of the dedication of the Confederate monument at Fairfax O. H., on October 1st.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The German Building Association No. 5 last night loaned $3,000 at 25.

Two sea cows, which were recently caught off the coast of Florida, attract attention on one of the Washington wharves, where they are on exhibition.

People from Fairfax county who were in the city to-day say that there was a slight frost in that county last night, but not sufficiently severe to do any damage.

As stated in the GAZETTE, the Senate yesterday passed a bill similar to the Atkinson bill in the House, giving the Pennsylvania Railroad additional facilities in South Washington.

Tennis is now at its height, and every fine afternoon interested lookers-on may be seen at the courts of the north Washington and Columbus street clubs. The playing of Messrs. Lambert, Reid, Miller and Norton at the latter court frequently evokes applause.

Radam's Microbe Killer

Exterminates the Microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of Malarial Fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases.

Asthma, Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Female Troubles in all its forms, and, in fact, every Disease known to the Human System.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The stock market this morning was quiet. First prices were in almost all cases slightly higher than the closing figures of last evening.
